PRES. COOLIDGE AIMS TO KEEP WITHIN BUDGET

CONFERENCES ARE BEING HELD WITH HIS BUDGET CHIEF

ONE OF THE FEW INCREASES ALLOWED IS FOR CUSTOMS AND INTERNAL REVENUE

PUBLIC BUILDING PROGRAM IS FIVE YEARS BEHIND ON ACCOUNT OF THE WAR

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 19.—Providing money to run the government, and yet keeping within the limits set by the budget is one of the most difficult tasks congress must face.

However, with almost daily conferences between President Coolidge and Director of the Budget Lord the budget estimates are virtually completed. It was understood they will be well within the $3,500,000,000 mark set by the late President Harding in his demand for economy.

With this amount, $1,700,000,000 or $125,000,000 less than last year will go for the ordinary expenses of running the government. The remainder will be providing for interest on the national debt and the retirement fund of war bonds.

One of the few increases to be allowed in the budget estimates is for the customs service, and the internal revenue bureau.

These revenue collecting agencies have grown rapidly and the increases are destined to give them greater efficiency.

The so-called pork barrel bills, the public buildings bill and the rivers and harbors bill are certain to cause trouble again this year.

Representative Langley of Kentucky, chairman of the house public buildings committee has served notice on the president that he intends to introduce a measure calling for an outlay of $100,000,000 for public buildings.

While the treasury department is resisting all unusual appropriations in order to promote the tax reductions plan of Secretary Mellon, it is somewhat embarrassed over the public buildings measure.

The public building program is five years behind on account of the war and many government activities are cramped for space. Reports show in many cities it would be more economical for the government to build than to pay rent.

Then there is the rivers and harbors bill.

Last year congress overrode the budget estimate of $26,000,000 and appropriated $56,000,000 in a lump sum.

The rivers and harbors advocates hope to be able to increase the amount next year.

ADMINISTRATION'S NEW IMMIGRATION BILL

Washington, Nov. 19.—The administration's new immigration bill will provide for a two per cent quota instead of a three per cent and will base quotas on the census of 1890 instead of 1910. Representative Johnson, chairman of the house immigration committee, announced today. The new bill will rate in about 340,000 immigrants yearly as compared with 350,000 under the present law, Johnson said.

CHARGED VIOLATING THE MANN ACT

Houston, Texas, Nov. 19.—The trial of Edward Young Clarke, former imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, charged with violation of the Mann act, was postponed until December 17th when called in federal court here today.

PEASANTS CLASH WITH SEPARATISTS

Paris, Nov. 19.—Eight persons were killed and 60 wounded in renewed fighting between peasants and Rhineland separatists that broke out at Hünberg, dispatches from Düsseldorf said.

French troops intervened and disarmed 1,000 separatists, reports said.

Two Third Party Tickets May Enter the Field

FLAMES COME NEAR DESTROYING ENTIRE FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 19.—The entire fire alarm system of this city was endangered, and property damage estimated at $350,000 was caused by two fires which started almost simultaneously. In one, which occurred next door to fire headquarters, the flames came within five feet of the central switchboard of the fire alarm system.

The Griswold-Sohl company, automobile accessories, suffered a loss estimated at $190,000.

The other fire destroyed the garage of the Ohio Bell Telephone company and the plant of the American Laundry company in an adjoining building at a combined loss of $155,000.

STANDARD DENIES

'GAS' PRICE COMBINE

CHARGE OF 40 PER CENT PROFIT IN SOUTH DAKOTA CALLED RIDICULOUS

Chicago, Nov. 19.—The Standard Oil company of Indiana in a formal statement here has vigorously denied the charges of Governor W. H. McMaster of South Dakota that the Indiana company had combined with independent interests to increase the price of gasoline.

The Standard recently raised its price two cents a gallon. McMaster ordered state highway stations to cut the price and denounced the oil companies.

The Standard's statement in full follows:

"The Standard Oil company of Indiana denies that it has combined with so-called independent oil dealers or any one else to raise the price of gasoline in the state of South Dakota or at any other place.

"It asserts recent action in the state of South Dakota in advancing the price at service without advancing tank wagon price schedules was done to restore the usual two cents differential between tank wagon and service station prices.

"The Standard Oil company of Indiana operates only 32 service stations in South Dakota, whereas it operates more than 250 tank wagon stations. This change brought South Dakota into a parity of prices with all other states in which this company does business.

"The statement that there is either a 40 per cent or 60 per cent profit in the oil business in South Dakota is supremely ridiculous. We venture to express the doubt whether anyone doing business in South Dakota is making a profit of two cents a gallon."

MAGNUS JOHNSON AND HIRAM JOHNSON

MAGNUS SAYS HIRAM HAS LOST SOME OF HIS PROGRESSIVENESS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Nov. 19.—Senator Magnus Johnson of Minnesota is convinced that Senator Hiram Johnson, California, who just announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for president, "has lost some of his progressivism." For that reason, Magnus Johnson fears he may be unable to support his name.

The Minnesota senator made two addresses here yesterday and left for Washington today.

A third party ticket appears inevitable, Johnson said. The republicans undoubtedly will nominate President Coolidge and the democratic convention will select another "standpatter," he said.

Johnson refused to speak further on a third party.

ANGLO-FRENCH ENTENTE GETS BY A CRISIS

PREMIER POINCARÉ MAY SUBMIT A COMPROMISE STATEMENT

EXPECTED TO UNITE DIVERGENT BRITISH AND FRENCH VIEWPOINTS

(By United Press)
Paris, Nov. 19.—The Anglo-French entente appeared to have weathered another crisis today when it was learned the ambassadors' conference reached virtual agreement on a compromise formula.

The compromise dealt with the proposed allied action toward Germany regarding expulsion of the former crown prince and reimposition of the allied military control.

The ambassadors were to meet again at 6 p. m. It was learned.

Premier Poincaré was to submit the proposed compromise between the British and French viewpoints to the cabinet today.

FRENCH CABINET IN CONFERENCE

Paris, Nov. 19.—Announcement that the cabinet had rejected the terms of the proposed note dealing with the crown prince included the statement that it had accepted the text of the note regarding imposition of allied control of Germany's military preparations.

The cabinet insisted on "minor reservations" to this part of the note, the announcement said.

The French cabinet later unanimously approved Premier Poincaré's attitude in recommending acceptance of the ambassadors' compromise proposal to preserve the Anglo-French entente, it was announced.

It is believed the chief object in France's mind to the part of the note dealing with the crown prince was that it had no teeth in it.

The British ambassador, Marquis of Crewe, in accordance with fresh instructions from his government, refused to agree to a joint note in which any threat of specific military action was made, it was understood.

TEUTONS REFUSE TO GIVE UP CROWN PRINCE

Berlin, Nov. 19.—Germany will not surrender the former crown prince even if France takes military action.

Chancellor Stresemann made this flat declaration in a speech at a party caucus of members of the Reichstag. He declared the federal courts must deal with the leaders of the recent Munich uprising.

Germany's refusal to submit to reimposition of military control by the allies despite France's demands, was also emphasized by the chancellor in his bid for the support of his party.

"Many persons assert that parties no longer exist and demand a nationalistic dictatorship and if a dictatorship came about, it would be the most independent form of government conceivable," the chancellor said.

NEW OBSTACLE RAISES ITS HEAD

Paris, Nov. 19.—After the Anglo-French entente appeared to have weathered a serious crisis by agreement in the ambassadors' conference early today on a proposed joint note to Germany, a new obstacle arose when the French cabinet refused to accept the terms of the note dealing with the demand for expulsion of the crown prince of Germany.

SAILS OVER CRISIS AND AGAIN IN TROUBLE

Paris, Nov. 19.—The Anglo-French entente hung in the balance again tonight as the ambassadors' conference adjourned until tomorrow to give the Marquis of Crewe more time to get instructions from the British government.

SINKING STEAMER IS PATCHED UP AND IS ABLE TO MAKE PORT

(By United Press)
Savannah, Ga., Nov. 19.—The steamship Mira Flores, reported sinking five hundred miles off Savannah during the night as a result of a leak in the engine room, is proceeding to port under her own power, according to radio advices here today.

IMPORTANT SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

ALIEN ACQUIRING CORPORATION RIGHTS

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today held that that portion of California land law which prohibits an eligible alien from acquiring stock in corporations owning land was constitutional.

This suit was brought by Raymond Frick and N. Satow, an American citizen and Japanese subject residing in California, was one of a series to test the constitutionality of the California land act which was designed to prevent orientals from owning or leasing land or from acquiring stock in land owning corporations.

The decision upheld a previous decision of the United States district court in California. Fricks and Satow appealed on the ground that the act was in violation of the 14th amendment of the constitution of the United States and of the provisions of the treaty of 1911 between the United States and Japan.

ON DISTRIBUTION, MARKETING FILMS

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today held that the method employed by film producers to distribute and market films to local motion picture theatres by means of the associated film exchange operating in zones, is an interstate operation and therefore, is subject to the regulation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

CALIFORNIA STATE LAW ON BANK DEPOSITS

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today declared constitutional the California state law decreeing that bank deposits in state banks which have not been increased or decreased for twenty years while depositors residence remains unknown after notice, shall be escheated to the state.

CROPPING CONTRACT HELD A VIOLATION

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today decided that a so-called "cropping contract" was a violation of the terms of the California alien land law designed to prevent the acquisition of an interest in land by orientals.

The decision reversed the ruling of the district court of northern California which had enjoined Attorney Webb of California and District Attorney Collidge of Santa Clara county from bringing criminal action against J. P. O'Brien and J. Inouye because of such a contract.

RAILWAY SHOPMEN PETITION DENIED

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today denied the petition of Barney McCourtney, Fred Burch and A. W. Pease, shopmen, working for the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad for a review of their convictions for contempt of court in violating the injunction during the shopmen's strike in 1922.

The petitioners based their plea for a review on the contention that the acts for which they were arrested occurred in Thayer, Missouri, in the southern division of the western district of Missouri but that against their will they were brought to trial in the United States court in the western division of the western district of Missouri.

BLINDED BY GRIEF AND OVERCOME BY HER SAD EMOTIONS

LITTLE MYRTLE SANDERS IS A PATHETIC HUMAN WRECK AFTER TRAGEDY

FOUR VICTIMS OF PASSION OF ITALIAN WOODSMAN BURIED AT KELLIHER

(By United Press)
Kelliher, Minn., Nov. 19.—Blinded by grief and overcome with emotion, little Myrtle Sanders today was a pathetic human wreck after yesterday's quadruple ceremony in which four victims of her mad lover were buried.

Her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders and Oscar Timmy, another of the little girl's suitors, were buried after brief services Sunday morning at the Norwegian Lutheran church. Members of the Masonic order flocked here for the burial of J. A. Wilson, marshal of Kelliher. The service was held at the theatre in the afternoon.

All were victims of Leonard Portano, Italian woodsman who killed them Thursday after a quarrel over the affections of the little Sanders girl. Myrtle was forced to accompany Portano on his murderous mission.

In the little Norwegian church yesterday she collapsed. Physicians are caring for her at the hotel.

Portano is in jail at Bemidji awaiting action of the special grand jury which will meet December 11th.

$100,000,000 FOR INLAND WATERWAYS

(By United Press)
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 19.—"One hundred million dollars for an inland waterway."

This will be the slogan of the Mississippi Valley shippers in a drive on congress to secure completion of 6,239 miles of navigable waterways to ship wheat and other exports of the middle west out through the gulf the Mississippi Valley association told the United Press today in announcing its legislative program.

"A navigable waterway system at such a cost is ridiculously cheap," President James E. Smith of the association, said.

FORD BOOSTERS

AWAIT HIS ACTION

THEIR CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT MAY NOT BE IN A RECEPTIVE MOOD

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 19.—Minnesota's Ford for President boosters have decided to await some word from the auto manufacturer as to whether he is in a receptive mood.

"We would look foolish going out to complete a big organization unless Mr. Ford really intends to act on the insistence of the thousands who want to back him for president," said George P. Jones, St. Cloud, chief booster for Ford for president.

Week end discussions here lead the Ford boosters to forego further activity in behalf of Ford until some definite word comes from Detroit.

PAPER MILL EMPLOYEE IS FATALLY SCALDED

(By United Press)
Little Falls, Nov. 19.—Gust Wick, an employee of the Hennepin paper mill company here, was perhaps fatally scalded when a steam pipe in the machine room burst.

His arms, legs, back and face were terribly scalded and he is in a serious condition at Hall's hospital.

OELS CALLERS LEAVE CARDS BUT FAIL TO SEE CROWN PRINCE

Oels, Nov. 19.—Visitors to the castle since the return of the former crown prince have been few and far between. Apparently Frederick William has willed it so, and his wishes are law these days at the castle.

Among the callers were the burgomaster, who dusted his high hat, donned a frock coat and paid his respects officially to the town's most discussed resident. Several other officials and prominent citizens have also called, but with one or two exceptions they did not get beyond the front gate, where they left calling cards with a meek little girl who operates the telephone exchange board at the main entrance and who has been reinforced by the gruff, husky son of the caretaker, acting as guard.

1,800 ARE MADE ROYAL ARCH MASONS

5,000 WITNESS CONFERRING OF DEGREES AT MAMMOTH YORK RITE CONVOCATION

St. Paul, Nov. 19.—Five thousand Royal Arch Masons and more than 1,800 candidates "groping through the darkness toward light," assembled at the St. Paul auditorium for what was the great capillary event in the history of free masonry in Minnesota.

It was the second occasion on which exalted degrees in Royal Arch Masonry were conferred at a convocation drawing candidates from all parts of the state and the number of candidates receiving the Minnesota convocation exceeded by several hundred a similar Masonic enterprise in Missouri.

The public's only impression of the ceremonies were short parades by plumed Knights Templar of two commanderies, Zion of Minneapolis, and Damascus of St. Paul.

The commanderies gave exhibition drills at the auditorium after the ceremonies attending the elevation to the degrees of Past Master and Most Excellent Master. The final degree in Royal Arch Masonry, Right Worshipful Master, will be conferred by individual lodges later.

Special scenic and lighting effects, made possible by auditorium equipment, made the ceremonies impressive to an unusual degree. The staging required the services of 600 persons. The entire building was used, spectators occupying the galleries and candidates being assembled on the first floor. While candidates were drawn from Minnesota lodges there were visitors from many states. The most distant state represented was Connecticut.

All chapters of the twin cities participated in the convocation. In immediate charge were William J. Buckley, chairman; D. E. MacLennan, vice-chairman; Leonard B. Lees, secretary; E. E. Pike, S. Z. Maxwell, J. H. Smades, A. J. Williams, A. D. McCormick; A. D. Axtell and L. B. Lees, committee men; A. E. Clarendon in charge of ritualistic work; L. S. Van Hook, chorus; Wallace C. McWhinney, band, and Alfred E. Slawik, organist.

He intends to keep from getting mixed up in the Ku Klux Klan fight if he can.

"That is a sectional or state question," said Johnson.

He is preparing to fight back at those critics who assail his progressivism because of his vote for the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill.

"As a Californian I voted for that tariff bill and I have no apologies to make," said Johnson.

"I am not ashamed of that vote and nobody can accuse me of a lack of progressivism because of it."

Johnson's plans for conducting his campaign in the presidential primaries are maturing rapidly, he indicated. He showed irritation, however, when asked whether he would make a campaign in Pennsylvania where Governor Pinchot, another Roosevelt progressive may be a candidate.

"I shall accept the result with a cheerful heart," said Johnson, "what ever it may be. I am making this fight because I believe the people ought to have the right to operate at will directly on the presidency. They are denied this in many states under present conditions. For instance, Iowa has no presidential primaries. That is a condition that should be remedied."

ROBBER SHOTS HIS VICTIM IN STOMACH

(By United Press)
Detroit, Mich., Nov. 19.—Shot by a robber to silence his protests, Joe Johns, Assyrian merchant, died at a hospital here early today from a bullet wound in his abdomen.

Johns was felled by a blow from a black jack. The thug took $200 from him and then shot him when he protested, according to his story. A motorist discovered him lying in the road and took him to the hospital.

COMMITTEE OF 48, AND FARM-LABOR PARTY IN CHICAGO

NAMES OF HENRY FORD, SENATOR LaFOLLETTE AND SENATOR BORAH TALKED OF

CHICAGO FEDERATION OF LABOR. PRESIDENT MAY HEAD A SEPARATE GROUP

(By United Press)
Chicago, Nov. 19.—Two third party tickets may be in the field in the 1924 presidential race. Members of the "Committee of 48" and leaders of the farm-labor party conferred here today on a presidential nominee.

J. A. H. Hopkins, New York, head of the "Committee of 48" held meetings behind closed doors yesterday and continued the conference today. It was indicated that the names of Henry Ford, Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin and Senator Borah of Idaho were the center of attention.

John F. Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago federation of labor prominently identified with the original farmer-labor movement, made it known that he may have different views on the subject. From other sources it was learned Fitzpatrick may head a separate group.

CHAMPIONS THE SOLDIER BONUS

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 19.—Hiram Johnson is for the soldier bonus.

Johnson, who announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for president in Chicago last week discussed his campaign plans and his platform in a sketchy way in his office here today.

Inasmuch as the program for tax reduction proposed by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is drawn on the theory that there will be no soldier bonus, Johnson's announcement that he is for the soldier bonus would appear to line him up in opposition to the tax reduction plan.

Johnson said that this would not necessarily follow.

"I must study the Mellon plan before giving my position on it," he said.

"I believe in entire frankness and when I return from Chicago within ten days I expect to be in a position to discuss the Mellon plan and other questions now before the people."

Among those "other questions" Johnson included the investigation of the veterans bureau, the teapot dome oil leasing case and reclamation.

He intends to keep from getting mixed up in the Ku Klux Klan fight if he can.

"That is a sectional or state question," said Johnson.

He is preparing to fight back at those critics who assail his progressivism because of his vote for the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill.

"As a Californian I voted for that tariff bill and I have no apologies to make," said Johnson.

PRES. COOLIDGE AIMS TO KEEP WITHIN BUDGET

CONFERENCES ARE BEING HELD WITH HIS BUDGET CHIEF

ONE OF THE FEW INCREASES ALLOWED IS FOR CUSTOMS AND INTERNAL REVENUE

PUBLIC BUILDING PROGRAM IS FIVE YEARS BEHIND ON ACCOUNT OF THE WAR

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 19.—Providing money to run the government, and yet keeping within the limits set by the budget is one of the most difficult tasks congress must face.

However, with almost daily conferences between President Coolidge and Director of the Budget Lord the budget estimates are virtually completed. It was understood they will be well within the $3,500,000,000 mark set by the late President Harding in his demand for economy.

With this amount, $1,700,000,000 or $125,000,000 less than last year will go for the ordinary expenses of running the government. The remainder will be providing for interest on the national debt and the retirement fund of war bonds.

One of the few increases to be allowed in the budget estimates is for the customs service, and the internal revenue bureau.

These revenue collecting agencies have grown rapidly and the increases are destined to give them greater efficiency.

The so-called pork barrel bills, the public buildings bill and the rivers and harbors bill are certain to cause trouble again this year.

Representative Langley of Kentucky, chairman of the house public buildings committee has served notice on the president that he intends to introduce a measure calling for an outlay of $100,000,000 for public buildings.

While the treasury department is resisting all unusual appropriations in order to promote the tax reductions plan of Secretary Mellon, it is somewhat embarrassed over the public buildings measure.

The public building program is five years behind on account of the war and many government activities are cramped for space. Reports show in many cities it would be more economical for the government to build than to pay rent.

Then there is the rivers and harbors bill.

Last year congress overrode the budget estimate of $26,000,000 and appropriated $56,000,000 in a lump sum.

The rivers and harbors advocates hope to be able to increase the amount next year.

ADMINISTRATION'S NEW IMMIGRATION BILL

Washington, Nov. 19.—The administration's new immigration bill will provide for a two per cent quota instead of a three per cent and will base quotas on the census of 1890 instead of 1910. Representative Johnson, chairman of the house immigration committee, announced today. The new bill will rate in about 340,000 immigrants yearly as compared with 350,000 under the present law, Johnson said.

CHARGED VIOLATING THE MANN ACT

Houston, Texas, Nov. 19.—The trial of Edward Young Clarke, former imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, charged with violation of the Mann act, was postponed until December 17th when called in federal court here today.

PEASANTS CLASH WITH SEPARATISTS

Paris, Nov. 19.—Eight persons were killed and 60 wounded in renewed fighting between peasants and Rhineland separatists that broke out at Hünberg, dispatches from Düsseldorf said.

French troops intervened and disarmed 1,000 separatists, reports said.

Two Third Party Tickets May Enter the Field

FLAMES COME NEAR DESTROYING ENTIRE FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 19.—The entire fire alarm system of this city was endangered, and property damage estimated at $350,000 was caused by two fires which started almost simultaneously. In one, which occurred next door to fire headquarters, the flames came within five feet of the Central switchboard of the fire alarm system.

The Griswold-Sohl company, automobile accessories, suffered a loss estimated at $190,000.

The other fire destroyed the garage of the Ohio Bell Telephone company and the plant of the American Laundry company in an adjoining building at a combined loss of $155,000.

STANDARD DENIES 'GAS' PRICE COMBINE

CHARGE OF 40 PER CENT PROFIT IN SOUTH DAKOTA CALLED RIDICULOUS

Chicago, Nov. 19.—The Standard Oil company of Indiana in a formal statement here, has vigorously denied the charges of Governor W. H. McMaster of South Dakota that the Indiana company had combined with independent interests to increase the price of gasoline.

The Standard recently raised its price two cents a gallon. McMaster ordered state highway stations to cut the price and denounced the oil companies.

The Standard's statement in full follows:

"The Standard Oil company of Indiana denies that it has combined with so-called independent oil dealers or any one else to raise the price of gasoline in the state of South Dakota or at any other place.

"It asserts recent action in the state of South Dakota in advancing the price at service without advancing tank wagon price schedules was done to restore the usual two cents differential between tank wagon and service station prices.

"The Standard Oil company of Indiana operates only 32 service stations in South Dakota, whereas it operates more than 250 tank wagon stations. This change brought South Dakota into a parity of prices with all other states in which this company does business.

"The statement that there is either a 40 per cent or 60 per cent profit in the oil business in South Dakota is supremely ridiculous. We venture to express the doubt whether anyone doing business in South Dakota is making a profit of two cents a gallon."

MAGNUS SAYS HIRAM HAS LOST SOME OF HIS PROGRESSIVENESS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Nov. 19.—Senator Magnus Johnson of Minnesota is convinced that Senator Hiram Johnson, California, who just announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for president, "has lost some of his progressivism." For that reason, Magnus Johnson fears he may be unable to support his name sake.

The Minnesota senator made two addresses here yesterday and left for Washington today.

A third party ticket appears inevitable, Johnson said. The republicans undoubtedly will nominate President Coolidge and the democratic convention will select another "standpatter," he said.

Johnson refused to speak further on a third party.

ANGLO-FRENCH ENTENTE GETS BY A CRISIS

PREMIER POINCARÉ MAY SUBMIT A COMPROMISE STATEMENT

EXPECTED TO UNITE DIVERGENT BRITISH AND FRENCH VIEWPOINTS

(By United Press)
Paris, Nov. 19.—The Anglo-French entente appeared to have weathered another crisis today when it was learned the ambassadors' conference reached virtual agreement on a compromise formula.

The compromise dealt with the proposed allied action toward Germany regarding expulsion of the former crown prince and reimposition of the allied military control.

The ambassadors were to meet again at 6 p. m., it was learned.

Premier Poincaré was to submit the proposed compromise between the British and French viewpoints to the cabinet today.

FRENCH CABINET IN CONFERENCE

Paris, Nov. 19.—Announcement that the cabinet had rejected the terms of the proposed note dealing with the crown prince included the statement that it had accepted the text of the note regarding imposition of allied control of Germany's military preparations.

The cabinet insisted on "minor reservations" to this part of the note, the announcement said.

The French cabinet later unanimously approved Premier Poincaré's attitude in recommending acceptance of the ambassadors' compromise proposal to preserve the Anglo-French entente, it was announced.

IMPORTANT SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

ALIEN ACQUIRING CORPORATION RIGHTS

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today held that that portion of California law which prohibits an eligible alien from acquiring stock in corporations owning land was constitutional.

This suit was brought by Raymond Frick and N. Satow, an American citizen and Japanese subject residing in California, was one of a series to test the constitutionality of the California land act which was designed to prevent orientals from owning or leasing land or from acquiring stock in land owning corporations.

The decision upheld a previous decision of the United States district court in California. Fricks and Satow appealed on the ground that the act was in violation of the 14th amendment of the constitution of the United States and of the provisions of the treaty of 1911 between the United States and Japan.

ON DISTRIBUTION, MARKETING FILMS

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today held that the method employed by film producers to distribute and market films to local motion picture theatres by means of the associated film exchange operating in zones, is an interstate operation and therefore, is subject to the regulation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

CALIFORNIA STATE LAW ON BANK DEPOSITS

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today declared constitutional the California state law decreeing that bank deposits in state banks which have not been increased or decreased for twenty years while depositors residence remains unknown after notice, shall be escheated to the state.

CROPPING CONTRACT HELD A VIOLATION

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today decided that a so-called "cropping contract" was a violation of the terms of the California alien land law designed to prevent the acquisition of an interest in land by orientals.

The decision reversed the ruling of the district court of northern California which had enjoined Attorney Webb of California and District Attorney Collidge of Santa Clara county from bringing criminal action against J. P. O'Brien and J. Inouye because of such a contract.

RAILWAY SHOPMEN PETITION DENIED

Washington, Nov. 19.—The supreme court today denied the petition of Barney McCourtney, Fred Burch and A. W. Pease, shopmen, working for the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad for a review of their convictions for contempt of court in violating the injunction during the shopmen's strike in 1922.

The petitioners based their plea for a review on the contention that the acts for which they were arrested occurred in Thyra, Missouri, in the southern division of the western district of Missouri but that against their will they were brought to trial in the United States court in the western division of the western district of Missouri.

$100,000,000 FOR INLAND WATERWAYS

(By United Press)
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 19.—"One hundred million dollars for an inland waterway."

This will be the slogan of the Mississippi Valley shippers in a drive on congress to secure completion of 6,239 miles of navigable waterways to ship wheat and other exports of the middle west out through the gulf the Mississippi Valley association told the United Press today in announcing its legislative program.

"A navigable waterway system at such a cost is ridiculously cheap," President James E. Smith of the association, said.

FORD BOOSTERS AWAIT HIS ACTION

THEIR CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT MAY NOT BE IN A RECEPTIVE MOOD

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 19.—Minnesota's Ford for President boosters have decided to await some word from the auto manufacturer as to whether he is in a receptive mood.

"We would look foolish going out to complete a big organization unless Mr. Ford really intends to act on the insistence of the thousands who want to back him for president," said George P. Jones, St. Cloud, chief booster for Ford for president.

Week end discussions here lead the Ford boosters to forego further activity in behalf of Ford until some definite word comes from Detroit.

PAPER MILL EMPLOYEE IS FATALLY SCALDED

(By United Press)
Little Falls, Nov. 19.—Gust Wick, an employee of the Hennepin paper mill company here, was perhaps fatally scalded when a steam pipe in the machine room burst.

His arms, legs, back and face were terribly scalded and he is in a serious condition at Hall's hospital.

OELS CALLERS LEAVE CARDS BUT FAIL TO SEE CROWN PRINCE

Oels, Nov. 19.—Visitors to the castle since the return of the former crown prince have been few and far between. Apparently Frederick William has willed it so, and his wishes are law these days at the castle.

Among the callers were the burgomaster, who dusted his high hat, donned a frock coat and paid his respects officially to the town's most discussed resident. Several other officials and prominent citizens have also called, but with one or two exceptions they did not get beyond the front gate, where they left calling cards with a meek little girl who operates the telephone exchange board at the main entrance and who has been reinforced by the gruff, husky son of the caretaker, acting as guard.

1,800 ARE MADE ROYAL ARCH MASONS

5,000 WITNESS CONFERRING OF DEGREES AT MAMMOTH YORK RITE CONVOCATION

St. Paul, Nov. 19.—Five thousand Royal Arch Masons and more than 1,800 candidates "groping through the darkness toward light," assembled at the St. Paul auditorium for what was the great capillary event in the history of free masonry in Minnesota.

It was the second occasion on which exalted degrees in Royal Arch Masonry were conferred at a convocation drawing candidates from all parts of the state and the number of candidates receiving the Minnesota convocation exceeded by several hundred a similar Masonic enterprise in Missouri.

The public's only impression of the ceremonies were short parades by plumed Knights Templar of two commanderies, Zion of Minneapolis, and Damascus of St. Paul.

The commanderies gave exhibition drills at the auditorium after the ceremonies attending the elevation to the degrees of Past Master and Most Excellent Master. The final degree in Royal Arch Masonry, Right Worshipful Master, will be conferred by individual lodges later.

Special scenic and lighting effects, made possible by auditorium equipment, made the ceremonies impressive to an unusual degree.

The staging required the services of 600 persons. The entire building was used, spectators occupying the galleries and candidates being assembled on the first floor. While candidates were drawn from Minnesota lodges there were visitors from many states. The most distant state represented was Connecticut.

All chapters of the twin cities participated in the convocation. In immediate charge were William J. Buckley, chairman; D. E. MacLennan, vice-chairman; Leonard B. Lees, secretary; E. E. Pike, S. Z. Maxwell, J. H. Smades, A. J. Williams, A. D. McCormick; A. D. Axtell and L. B. Lees, committee men; A. E. Clarendon in charge of ritualistic work; L. S. Van Hook, chorus; Wallace C. McWhinney, band, and Alfred E. Slawik, organist.

ROBBER SHOTS HIS VICTIM IN STOMACH

(By United Press)
Detroit, Mich., Nov. 19.—Shot by a robber to silence his protests, Joe Johns, Assyrian merchant, died at a hospital here early today from a bullet wound in his abdomen.

Johns was felled by a blow from a black jack. The thug took $200 from him and then shot him when he protested, according to his story.

A motorist discovered him lying in the road and took him to the hospital.

COMMITTEE OF 48, AND FARM-LABOR PARTY IN CHICAGO

NAMES OF HENRY FORD, SENATOR LaFOLLETTE AND SENATOR BORAH TALKED OF

CHICAGO FEDERATION OF LABOR PRESIDENT MAY HEAD A SEPARATE GROUP

(By United Press)
Chicago, Nov. 19.—Two third party tickets may be in the field in the 1924 presidential race. Members of the "Committee of 48" and leaders of the farmer-labor party conferred here today on a presidential nominee.

J. A. H. Hopkins, New York, head of the "Committee of 48" held meetings behind closed doors yesterday and continued the conference today. It was indicated that the names of Henry Ford, Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin and Senator Borah of Idaho were the center of attention.

John J. Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago federation of labor prominently identified with the original farmer-labor movement, made it known that he may have different views on the subject. From other sources it was learned Fitzpatrick may head a separate group.

CHAMPIONS THE SOLDIER BONUS

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 19.—Hiram Johnson is for the soldier bonus.

Johnson, who announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for president in Chicago last week discussed his campaign plans and his platform in a sketchy way in his office here today.

Inasmuch as the program for tax reduction proposed by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is drawn on the theory that there will be no soldier bonus, Johnson's announcement that he is for the soldier bonus would appear to line him up in opposition to the tax reduction plan.

Johnson said that this would not necessarily follow.

"I must study the Mellon plan before giving my position on it," he said.

"I believe in entire frankness and when I return from Chicago within ten days I expect to be in a position to discuss the Mellon plan and other questions now before the people."

Among those "other questions" Johnson included the investigation of the veterans bureau, the teapot dome oil leasing case and reclamation.

He intends to keep from getting mixed up in the Ku Klux Klan fight if he can.

"That is a sectional or state question," said Johnson.

He is preparing to fight back at those critics who assail his progressivism because of his vote for the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill.

"As a Californian I voted for that tariff bill and I have no apologies to make," said Johnson.

"I am not ashamed of that vote and nobody can accuse me of a lack of progressivism because of it."

Johnson's plans for conducting his campaign in the presidential primaries are maturing rapidly, he indicated. He showed irritation, however, when asked whether he would make a campaign in Pennsylvania where Governor Pinchot, another Roosevelt progressive may be a candidate.

"I shall accept the result with a cheerful heart," said Johnson, "whatever it may be. I am making this fight because I believe the people ought to have the right to operate at will directly on the presidency. They are denied this in many states under present conditions. For instance, Iowa has no presidential primaries. That is a condition that should be remedied."

CHARGES KIDNAPING AN INSANE SOLDIER

(By United Press)

Washington, Nov. 19.—Charges that the veterans bureau under its present administration kidnaped an insane ex-soldier from an asylum in Washington and moved him to Pennsylvania in violation of a court order were made by Congressman Albert Johnson of Washington before a senate committee investigating the veterans bureau today.

Repudiating testimony given the committee previously by veterans bureau officials concerning this case, Johnson charged it was "apparently manufactured" to be used by the bureau in an effort to remove the veteran's wife as his guardian.

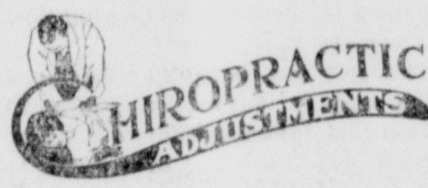

The veteran, Charles Kasavage, was committed to a Washington asylum by a Washington court last June. Johnson told the committee upon instructions of the bureau, his wife was appointed his guardian.

Last June the bureau served notice that it intended to transport Kasavage to a Pennsylvania institution. Mrs. Kasavage obtained an injunction restraining the director of the asylum from delivering her husband to bureau officials.

Despite the injunction, Johnson said, bureau employees visited the institution in the absence of the director, forcibly kidnaped Kasavage and moved him to Pennsylvania, where suit has been instituted at Wilkesbarre by the bureau to remove his wife as guardian.

Playing Safe

Noah, building the Ark, was the first great exponent of playing safe.

He was playing the safe game—taking no chances. Of course, it might not rain, but the Voice had said it would, and it did—you know the rest.

The best policy of selling coal is—playing safe. We never have, and never will market a coal until it has been thoroughly tested, through actual sales, but once proven, we recommend our coals without reservation.

Consolidation Eikhorn Coal and Zeigler Nut are the best coals we have ever seen or sold, and we have been selling coal for many years. That is a strong statement, but we absolutely stand back of it.

Play the safe game. Place your orders with us for fuel satisfaction.

Elks Home Talent Show to Flash Out in All Its Beauty at New Park Tonight

Tonight, at the New Park theatre, "Kathleen," Brainerd Elks Lodge No. 615 home talent show produced under the direction of James F. Blue of the John B. Rogers Producing company, will flash out in all its effulgent beauty.

The cast has its lines down to perfection. The choruses move with the grace and abandon of a Ziegfeld Follies company. There's an orchestra too and most appropriate scenery and costumes.

A ticket sale staged by Clyde E. Parker, chairman of the house, social and community welfare committee of the Elks, has taken in every nook of 615's big jurisdiction. In the city districts were assigned lieutenants. Take for instance William Garvey of South Sixth street. In a three block area he sold 90 tickets. The range has been canvassed by its lieutenant, J. P. Anderson of the Hillcrest mine.

Tonight is "Brainerd Night" at the show and white tickets admit. Tuesday night is "Range Night," with blue tickets admitting its fortunate possessors.

Dress rehearsals gave every evidence that the Elks were about to launch one of the best home talent plays in the history of the city. Hundreds are coming just to see Col. C. D. Johnson in his part as the butler.

"I have usually confined my histrionic exertions to Shakespearian roles," said the colonel. "Of course, when the Elks requested I take up that part of the butler I quickly came off my high horse in thespian spheres and took up the mundane role offered me. I expect to make good and expect also some applause when I get my cue to come out," said the colonel in conclusion.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Of First Congregational Church Met
Friday Afternoon With Mrs.
Harry Wilson

The Missionary society of the First Congregational church which met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Wilson, carried out the following program with Miss Sadie Robinson leader.

The study of "Militarism, Reaction and Liberalism," in Japan, was first noted in "The break with feudalism and isolation," by Mrs. E. P. Slipp, who called attention to the early days of Japan when certain families reigned supreme through the military regent or Shogun thus making the Mikados mere puppets. During the Tokugawa reign from 1600-1867 power was strongly centralized, feudalism perfected and strict seclusion begins. With the country ripe for revolt the break comes from the outside when Commodore Perry of the United States, 1854, secures a treaty between the United States and Japan for trade and in 1871 feudalism is abolished and outcasts are admitted to citizenship.

Mrs. Losey followed by telling the story of "The Book That Fell Overboard," the book being found by a Japanese fisherman in his net, he carried it to the commander of the Japanese troops guarding a certain harbor. This commander, who was a nobleman, with his brother and a relative succeeded in reading the book which resulted in their being converted to Christianity and later baptized by Dr. Verbeck, one of the first missionaries to enter Japan after the signing of the treaty of peace.

Mrs. G. S. Swanson in describing "Political Career," spoke of the time during the seventies and eighties when the study of English and American history made progressive Japanese youth ambitious to carry their country at one bound from feudalism to democracy.

Mrs. George Whitney took up the subject, "How Did Germany's Defeat Affect Japan's Attitude Toward Democracy?" and told how the moment that Germany had been defeated—to the surprise and chagrin of many Japanese militarists—the glamour of the military career began to fade.

Miss Robinson, in speaking of "The Part Played by Christian Leaders," showed how in the creation of a liberal public opinion, a prominent part has been borne by Christians or men and women inspired by the ideals of personality, liberty and brotherhood.

Mrs. Spencer, in telling of the Japanese "Living Up to the Washington Agreement," spoke of the Washington conference going far to neutralize sinister tendencies and to give renewed power and courage to Japanese liberalism, while Mrs. H. L. Jones in noting "What Steps Have Been Taken to Fulfill the Washington Agreement" told of Admiral Baron Kato, the chief representative at Washington, made premier soon after his return home, being better fitted to control the military groups, while the army as well as the navy has been promptly reduced. The Japanese garrisons have been withdrawn from the Chinese interior points; the Japanese troops in Siberia were all withdrawn on October 31st, 1922, and in December the last Japanese soldier left Shantung, and on January 1st, 1923, Japan turned over to China the postoffices which for many years had given Japan points of vantage.

Mrs. C. W. Hoffman discussed "What is the Japan-Shantung Trouble," which recalled the days when two German priests were murdered in China, and troops came to demand that a port be given to Germany in return for the wrong done her. This was Germany's entrance into Shantung, and during the World war the Allies gave Japan the right to take the German-Shantung occupation in China, which she did, even taking more land than Germany held, but by the Shantung agreement Japan is restoring territorial and administrative rights, also railways and mines.

Mrs. Harry Wilson in referring to "What Situation Arises Through Japan's Population and China's Resources," showed how Japan's increase of population was likely to cause emigration to the rich undeveloped resources of China, while with the occidental capital and technicians, clashes of interest may occur any time. This calls loudly for missionary emigration.

"Korea," as discussed by Mrs. J. M. Elder, calls to mind the days of Hideyoshi, the "Napoleon of Japan," who in 1595-1599 invaded Korea, which he temporarily subjugated, at which time it is said the invaders cut off the ears of thousands of Korean captives and shipped them to Kyoto where an "Ear Mound" stands to this day as evidence of the deed.

With war between Japan and Russia, 1904-05, Japan's paramount position in Korea was recognized when she assumed direction of the government of Korea and finally annexed the country in 1910.

Mrs. L. P. Hall ably discussed the "International Question Centered in California," and in speaking of the emigration of Japanese into California being prohibited, told of the Japanese getting by the process of "bootlegging," as after entering by Canada from there they would be dropped in California by airplanes. In closing Mrs. Hall stated the question in which all people of the present time should be interested in is that of emigration.

The program closed with the giving of the charming little poem, "Pass It On," by Mrs. Dan Smith, the purport of which declares: "For the heart grows rich in giving, Would'st thou double every blessing? Pass it on."

A social hour followed at which time the hostess served very appetizing refreshments.

During the opening exercises Mrs. Hoffman played and sang "Lead Me Savior."

GUESTS OF JOHN M. BYE

Forty Members of Alumni Association of Brainerd Commercial College Entertained at Lake Cottage

(Contributed)

On Saturday evening some forty members of the alumni association of the Brainerd Commercial College, with their friends and present students of the school enjoyed a very pleasant evening as the guests of John M. Bye at his summer cottage on Gull lake.

The party left the college shortly after eight o'clock, nine cars being necessary for the pilgrimage. Mr. Bye very thoughtfully had arranged to have a good fire burning in the fire place when the merry-makers arrived, a courtesy that was much appreciated and which brought forth many exclamations of glad surprise when the destination was reached.

Lively games were soon in order, everyone enjoying Mr. Bye's hospitality to the utmost. About eleven o'clock the cooks got into action and prepared the refreshments, consisting of a big oyster stew, nut bread sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee, all served cafeteria style. The put bread was a donation from the Elektrik Maid Bake Shop, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered that firm for its kindness.

After supper the boys, deciding that it was their turn to work, took charge of affairs, vying with each other in the gentle art of dishwashing, and proving themselves very capable in that capacity.

The French doors were then thrown open, giving access to the porch, and the young people spend the remainder of the evening in dancing, a Victrola furnishing the music, all of the latest song and dance hits, ending with the old favorite "Home Sweet Home."

It was after midnight when the music ceased, the embers burned low in the fireplace and the start for home was made. Mr. Bye was acclaimed the best of hosts, and was tendered a vote of thanks for the many courtesies that he extended.

This is only one of the many social gatherings that the Alumni association of the Commercial College plans for this season, and the interest in the winter program is running very high. In order to strengthen the organization and to plan for the next big event, a business meeting will be called in the near future, to which all former students are invited and urged to be present.

ANOTHER PLAN TO END WAR

THE offering of a prize for a plan by which war may be ended has led to much thinking about the outlawing of war. Not all of those who are offering plans are submitting them to the committee with the hope of winning the prize offered by Mr. Bok. It is probable that the interest in the subject, resulting from the publicity given to the contest, will be more rewarding than the plans submitted. Everywhere in the United States the minds of American citizens are considering the difficulties lying along the road to peace and the means that may be employed to remove these difficulties.

Every day the newspapers carry some reference to some speech addressed to this subject and as those speeches are made to numerous assemblies many auditors are impressed by the various recommendations looking to the outlawing of war. This week John F. Sinclair, recently returned from a five months tour of Europe, presented a plan to the delegates attending the first meeting of the Minnesota branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. This plan calls for cutting the tariffs, reducing armaments, establishing a moratorium, redistributing gold, refusing to allow an executive to break off diplomatic relations without the consent of the people and the forbidding of armament making and selling by private groups. To these Mr. Sinclair added the suggestion that "the only way we'll ever do away with war is by making every congressman who votes for it automatically become a member of the army." Mr. Sinclair is not the first person to conclude that if the representatives of the people were compelled to do the fighting themselves they would not vote for war.

The great value of such plans is not so much in the plans themselves as in the study of them, for while it will be exceedingly difficult to formulate a plan which will be acceptable to the irreconcilables in the United States senate and to the peoples or, rather, the representatives of the peoples of other countries, if the citizens of the world are led to think continuously about ending war, a demand for the abolition of war will be expressed, and when the peoples of the world have willed this the method for ending war will be found. The old adage contains more than a grain of truth: "Where there's a will there's a way." By presenting ways that seem to contain a possible solution of the problem the will may be encouraged to look for a better way until the best way is found.

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR BACKS GOOD PROJECTS

THE legislative representatives of the American Federation of Labor have given their attention to two matters on which the people generally are with the federation. The people of the United States are opposed to an increase in immigration at this time and they are in favor of an amendment to the Constitution by which the disgusting evils arising out of child labor will be brought to an end.

Unanimity on such questions is not to be expected but we think that it is fair to claim, as we have claimed already, that the majority of the people in the United States are opposed to an increase in the number of immigrants to be admitted to the United States and are opposed to the use of child labor in the way in which child labor is used today in various parts of the United States.

The American Federation of Labor has gone on record with some force about the boring from within of certain radical leaders, and the federation is advised of the threatened attack on American institutions if large numbers of immigrants are admitted to the United States at a time when there is a trend towards extreme attitudes, for the danger comes not from one extreme but from both. Some of the communists in the United States were born here while others became communists after they arrived here to be made what they are by the wrongs they have endured. The immigrant must be saved from the danger of becoming red after he arrives, and all of the reds in the United States were not imported. And this is no time to endanger our institutions by bringing in disgruntled aliens to be exploited by those organizations of industry that are asking for an increase in the immigration quota.

Where there are people who do not profit through the abuse of children there is an almost unanimous disapproval of the abusive use of the labor of children. The conscience of those who utilize such labor may be dulled by the profit accruing from this labor, but the conscience of the American people condemns it, and the federation of labor will have the support of the people in their effort to bring this monstrosity of our industrial order to an end.

LLOYD GEORGE GETS A FREE TICKET

It looks as though the conservative party at present in power in Britain had handed Lloyd George a free ticket to the premiership. While he was in the United States the Stanley Baldwin ministry revived talk of protection for Britain. The fact that Lloyd George had been in this country for some time, during which the attention of the people of Britain had been focused upon his trip to Canada and the United States, and returned just after the protection issue had been raised gave him a splendid chance to make one of his big impressions. He seems to have made it.

Unless sentiment in England has changed strangely there is little chance of any party winning on this issue. True, conditions have changed, unemployment exists and the economic life of Europe is unstable, but even in spite of these changes it will be hard to convince the British people that the fight of Bright and Cobden and the principles of Gladstone were mistaken. The heart of England has responded to the gospel of free trade in the past and if Lloyd George is given such an issue and can unite the factions of the liberal party under his leadership he is likely to be returned to the premiership in the next election.

EVEN the motion picture industry has been hit by the high cost of living. It feeds on actors and actresses and these have been asking rather high prices. From now on they won't receive as much and a whole lot of folk will conclude that what they do receive is sufficient.

A Gold-Plated Carriage.
Historians agree that the most valuable carriage in the world is one found in the palace of the Trianon at Versailles, that was built for Charles X of France, and under instructions to spare no pains or cost in making it fit for the regal and rather bizarre tastes that prevailed in those days, so from the tip of the pole to the hind wheels the carriage is plated with heavy gold decorations, the cost of construction then being in excess of $200,000. Today it would be many times that sum.

2 AUTOMOBILES IN A COLLISION

Studebaker of Frank Bidwell and Ford of St. Paul Man Damaged

MRS. BIDWELL WAS INJURED

Flying Piece of Glass From a Head-light Gashed Her Fore-head

Two automobiles collided at the Storstad corner, half a mile west of the Fredstrom home, at 5:15 Sunday afternoon. Both cars were badly damaged, but none of the occupants received any serious injuries.

Frank Bidwell, wife and child were returning to Brainerd in their light six Studebaker, and in negotiating the corner their car was struck by a Ford, said to be owned and driven by Frank J. Flanagan, of St. Paul.

The impact of the collision tipped the Ford over, and it is said that it was necessary to take the occupants out through a hole made in the top.

The Ford front axle was entirely torn out, its fenders, headlights and running boards badly damaged. The handle from one of the doors of the Bidwell car went through the headlight of the Ford and lodged in the reflector.

The Studebaker received a bad dent in the body, the front axle bent, and the fenders damaged. A long gash was torn in one of the front tires.

A queer freak of the accident was the fact that the jar of the collision opened the windshield of the Studebaker and a flying piece of glass from one of the headlights entered and struck Mrs. Bidwell on the forehead, cutting her quite badly. This was the only personal injury that developed from the collision.

Mr. Flanagan and his party continued to St. Paul on Sunday evening in another car. He gives as the reason for the accident the fact that he was driving against the rays of the setting sun, which blinded him so that he did not see the Bidwell car approaching.

9 YOUNG MEN IN COURT

Charged With Drinking Intoxicating Liquor Within 1000 Feet of Public Dance Hall

Nine young men were arraigned in municipal court Monday afternoon, on a charge of drinking intoxicating liquor within one thousand feet of a public dance hall, in violation of a state law governing such cases. All plead guilty, but two, being minors, were certified to the juvenile court. The others were fined $10 each and costs assessed at $4 each.

The young men were Roy Tollefsen, Fred Elling, Harlan Holman, C. Daveau, F. Tracy, George Albers, Henry Janest, Ed. Gmahl and Albert Gmahl. Albert Gmahl and Daveau were certified to the juvenile court.

The offense on which they were arraigned is said to have been committed at a dance at Dykeman on Saturday evening.

NEW FEATURE AT LYCEUM

Each Saturday Night to be a Cash Prize Night at the Show

W. R. Hiller, manager of the Lyceum theatre, announces that he will inaugurate a new feature at his popular playhouse, in making each Saturday night a "Cash prize night."

Beginning on next Saturday evening, November 24th, and continuing on each Saturday thereafter, until further notice, cash prizes will be given to patrons of the Lyceum.

Mr. Hiller did not outline the plan to the Dispatch, but will announce it through the week, with an explanation of the policy at the regular evening performances.

The management of the Lyceum is constantly on the alert for innovations that will please Brainerd theatregoers, and during the past season has staged some interesting added attractions. It is believed, however, that the cash prize night will be more appreciated than any other feature, especially just before the holidays, when Christmas money is more than welcome.

NOTICE

All members of the Court's Magnolia No. 54 are requested to be present at our meeting night Nov. 20 as there will be election of officers and initiation of candidates. High Court Officers Minnie Plank and James Schoemaker will also be present.

FORMER DEPUTY SHERIFF DIED

John Byrne, Many Years a Resident of County, Passed Away Saturday Evening

HAD BEEN AILING 2 YEARS

Served as Deputy on Cuyuna Iron Range and Later as Deputy of Former Sheriff Claus Theorin

John Byrne, former deputy sheriff of Crow Wing county, and for many years a resident of this county and Brainerd, died at 10:30 Saturday evening at a local hospital, after a two weeks severe illness. Mr. Byrne has been ailing for the past two years, a complication of diseases causing his death.

He was born in Nashua, N. H., March 3rd, 1855. While still a young man he came to Minnesota, first settling at Minneapolis, where he was employed at his trade as moulder.

He came to Brainerd in 1881, working in the foundry of Parker & Topping. Later he went to Staples where he served that town as city marshal.

The family moved from Staples to Superior, Wis., where they lived for 18 years, coming back to Crow Wing county in 1906 and settling on a farm near Fort Ripley.

Mr. Byrne served as a deputy sheriff on the Cuyuna range, and in 1917 came to Brainerd in the same capacity, working under Sheriff Claus Theorin until January 1st, 1923.

He was married in Brainerd to Miss Julia Prentice, who died in Superior. There were no children by this marriage. Later he was married to Miss Ruby Prentice. Four children were born to this union, two of whom died in infancy. The two sons living are John William, employed in the blacksmith shop of the N. P. shops in Brainerd, and Charles Henry, an employee in the storeroom at the shops. He is also survived by two sisters and two brothers living in Lowell, Mass., and Nashua, N. H.

The funeral will be conducted from the home, 508 North 7th street, on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. E. A. Cooke of the Methodist church officiating. Interment will be made in the Clute cemetery in Fort Ripley township.

Miss Doris Schmale Showed Rare Judgment in Selection of Her Program Sunday Afternoon

4 GROUPS ENGLISH, 1 FOREIGN

All Were Most Enthusiastically Received and Evoked Well Merited Applause

The soul of the average American, whether he be a thorough student of music or just "no connoisseur, but he knows what he likes," rises responsive to songs in the mother tongue. Miss Doris Schmale, who delighted an audience at the new Park theatre Sunday afternoon, showed rare good judgment in selecting her program when she chose a majority of English songs. It is always a great temptation to sing songs in French or Italian, especially if they are arias from operas.

Four of her five groups were English, the fifth was foreign. All were most enthusiastically received, and evoked more applause than some of the well known and well advertised artists who have come from afar. Miss Schmale has the appearance of an opera singer, and a stage presence and poise of a more experienced performer. She has an ease that shows much rehearsing and training, a sweet voice of rather wide range, a true tone placing and the ability to interpret the moods of the song and the composer. This last showed itself especially in Verdi's "Pace, pace mio dio," where haunting tenderness and the nearness of tears were suggested even to those who understood not the words, and in "Donzelle Fuggite," which she handled with a mischievous grace that made it much appreciated.

She sang all too few songs. They were all well sung and applauded. Some were light and airy, some sad and pensive, and her last encore, "Thank God for a Garden" so appropriate for the day and so well given that it seemed the proper end to the program.

To mention just a few: The "Breath of Sandalwood" was charming, the "Flower in the Crannied Wall" fervent and deeply religious, the "Butterfly and the Rose" of a whimsical tenderness and "I wept, beloved" poignant in its sorrow. All these moods she interpreted beautifully, as was evidenced by the appreciation of the audience. This was Miss Schmale's debut in her own town, a debut so successful from the artistic viewpoint, that one may safely augur that her future appearances will find her capacity houses and many new friends.

Those who sing and those who play realize the importance of the accompanist, who can do so much to make a performance a finished product. Mrs. Walter F. Wieland is so well known and so thoroughly appreciated here that it hardly seems necessary to say more than that she played, as always, beautifully, and gave a sympathetic assistance to the singer in all the varied types of songs and at the piano, with her flying fingers, interpreted the composers as did the singer with her voice. To have Mrs. Wieland at the piano must give the person she accompanies a restful feeling that all is well.

2 AUTOMOBILES IN A COLLISION

Studebaker of Frank Bidwell and Ford of St. Paul Man Damaged

MRS. BIDWELL WAS INJURED

Flying Piece of Glass From a Head-light Gashed Her Fore-head

Two automobiles collided at the Stordstad corner, half a mile west of the Fredstrom home, at 5:15 Sunday afternoon. Both cars were badly damaged, but none of the occupants received any serious injuries.

Frank Bidwell, wife and child were returning to Brainerd in their light six Studebaker, and in negotiating the corner their car was struck by a Ford, said to be owned and driven by Frank J. Flanagan, of St. Paul.

The impact of the collision tipped the Ford over, and it is said that it was necessary to take the occupants out through a hole made in the top.

The Ford front axle was entirely torn out, its fenders, headlights and running boards badly damaged. The handle from one of the doors of the Bidwell car went through the headlight of the Ford and lodged in the reflector.

The Studebaker received a bad dent in the body, the front axle bent, and the fenders damaged. A long gash was torn in one of the front tires.

A queer freak of the accident was the fact that the jar of the collision opened the windshield of the Studebaker and a flying piece of glass from one of the headlights entered and struck Mrs. Bidwell on the forehead, cutting her quite badly. This was the only personal injury that developed from the collision.

Mr. Flanagan and his party continued to St. Paul on Sunday evening in another car. He gives as the reason for the accident the fact that he was driving against the rays of the setting sun, which blinded him so that he did not see the Bidwell car approaching.

The young men were Roy Tollefsen, Fred Elling, Harlan Holman, C. Daveau, F. Tracy, George Albers, Henry Janest, Ed. Gmahl and Albert Gmahl. Albert Gmahl and Daveau were certified to the juvenile court.

The offense on which they were arraigned is said to have been committed at a dance at Dykeman on Saturday evening.

NEW FEATURE AT LYCEUM

Each Saturday Night to be a Cash Prize Night at the Show

W. R. Hiller, manager of the Lyceum theatre, announces that he will inaugurate a new feature at his popular playhouse, in making each Saturday night a "Cash prize night."

Beginning on next Saturday evening, November 24th, and continuing on each Saturday thereafter, until further notice, cash prizes will be given to patrons of the Lyceum.

Mr. Hiller did not outline the plan to the Dispatch, but will announce it through the week, with an explanation of the policy at the regular evening performances.

The management of the Lyceum is constantly on the alert for innovations that will please Brainerd theatregoers, and during the past season has staged some interesting added attractions. It is believed, however, that the cash prize night will be more appreciated than any other feature, especially just before the holidays, when Christmas money is more than welcome.

CANADIAN AFTER HEAVYWEIGHT CROWN

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 19.—Jack Renault, the Canadian heavyweight, wants to fight Jack Dempsey for the world's championship, and if he has an even break in luck, he may get a shot at the title.

Renault is, at the present time, anything but the logical contender for Dempsey's crown, but he will make himself one because he is going about it the right way.

After knocking out Floyd Johnson, Renault said he was willing to fight Harry Wills, Tom Gibbons and Luis Firpo to prove his right to meet Dempsey.

Leo Flynn, Renault's manager, is one of the shrewdest managers in the business and he is also one of its most fluent orators. Flynn has done a lot of talking in advancing the claims of other heavyweights, but he seems to be sincere in his willingness to put Renault through the real test.

Renault now is not a great fighter. He may develop into one because he cannot help but improve himself by fighting top-notchers. The Canadian, in his present form, seems only to lack the aggressive spirit of a natural fighter. It is said of him that he is a "front runner," but he showed no signs of being timid in the Johnson fight.

When allowed to fight his own way or when he can force his opponent to fight his way, Renault is a good fighter. He can box and he can hit. His punching is accurate and well timed, even if it does lack the power of Dempsey, Gibbons and Wills.

Renault's worst fault lies in his tendency toward too much precaution. He prefers to play safe instead of charging in aggressively when he gets an opening. Had he been a great fighter he would have stopped Johnson many rounds before the fifteenth. He passed up many opportunities because he preferred to stay back and counter Johnson when he tore into him.

He cannot do that against Gibbons, Wills or Firpo. Only a rushing, charging fighter of the Dempsey type will beat the three leading contenders for the title.

Renault would not last five rounds if he tried to stand back and smack Gibbons, Wills or Firpo when they came into him. One good crack from any one of them would remove all chances for Renault to return a punch.

One thing is certain, and it will be a big help to him, Renault will not be over-matched. If Leo Flynn wants to match Renault with Gibbons, Wills and Firpo, it is a cinch that Flynn believes in his fighter. Flynn never will knock over a big money prospect for a little ready dough.

Floyd Johnson was one of the most promising young heavyweights to come up in four years, but he is clear out of the class now because he was over-matched in every one of his fights. He had nothing but courage, and a stout heart isn't the factor now that it was in the days of Bat Nelson.

MINNESOTA BEATS THE HAWKEYES

NEAR PERFECT TEAM PLAY OF GOPHERS SMOTHERED HAWKEYES

Minneapolis, Nov. 19.—Sweeping the heavier Iowa eleven off its feet with a perfectly timed and powerful attack, Minnesota furnished one of the upsets of the 1923 gridiron season by defeating the highly touted Hawkeyes, 20 to 7.

Record Crowd Sees Game

Before a crowd of 26,000, a record attendance for Northrup field, the Gophers not only upset the dope but stopped Iowa's string of five straight wins over the Maroon and Gold and now have only Michigan in the way of an undefeated season.

Minnesota's line, outweighed 12 pounds to a man, was a deciding factor in the victory. It was the work of the forwards that enabled the fleet Captain Earl Martineau and Malcolm Graham rip off long gains. And the brilliant play of this pair, coupled with Carl Lidberg's terrific line plunging and Ray Eklund's uncanny catching of forward passes, enabled the Gophers to take the upper hand early in the fray and hold it.

Minnesota's two marches down the field will live long in the memory of the fortunate ones who saw the battle between the traditional rivals. Minnesota in nine plays in the first period went from her 20 yard line to Iowa's 21 yard line, where a pass, Martineau to Eklund, brought a touchdown.

Soon afterward, early in the second period, Minnesota again marched down the field from her 18 yard line to within 25 yards of Iowa's goal. There a fake crisscross caught Iowa asleep and Martineau ripped through right tackle for a touchdown, going over the line standing up.

JAP JIU JITSUIST LOSES TO WRESTLER WHEN LEG IS BROKEN

Los Angeles, Nov. 17.—Walter Miller, wrestler, won by default last night from Taro Miyake, Japanese, in a combination bout of jiu jitsu and catch as catch can staged at the Los Angeles A. C.

After winning the first fall in a bout of jiu jitsu in 12 minutes and 54 seconds, Miyake was forced to withdraw at the end of the second fall as the result of a small bone broken in his left ankle while resisting one of Miller's toeholds.

The second fall, a catch as catch can bout, was won by Miller in 33 minutes and 58 seconds.

ZEV WINS BY A SCANT NOSE

RETRIEVES LOST HONORS FROM HIS RIVAL IN MEMORIAM

Churchill Downs, Louisville, Nov. 19.—With a stout heart pounding in rhythm with his flying hoofs, Zev son of The Finn, came from behind and regained his crown as champion 3 year old of the year by defeating In Memoriam in the match race here Saturday.

Zev won by a scant nose. In Memoriam, Carl Weidemann's western champion, had led Zev from a length to two lengths through the first long mile. In the stretch Zev began to close in. Earl Sande called upon the son of The Finn to give all he had. Zev leaped to the task. Slowly the daylight closed between the horses. They were head and head. Then Zev's nose, his neck, then Sande himself, showed in front. Little Mack Garner called on In Memoriam for a final effort. He shot through to the rail. Zev met final rush with a final rush. The plunging of the western horse was not enough. But so close was the finish that hundreds in the stands thought In Memoriam had won.

Celebrations for the supposed second victory of In Memoriam in two weeks were under way. Then the judges ordered Zev's number hoisted. They held that Harry F. Sinclair's colt had won by a nose. Garner rode back to the stand, smiling the smile of the victor and gently guided In Memoriam into the winner's circle. He was astounded when waved aside and the prancing, panting, blinkered Zev stepped into the charmed ring.

The time of the race was 2:06 3-5. This is three seconds slower than the track record for the distance of a mile and a quarter.

Giants Sign Ainsmith, Former Card Catcher

New York, Nov. 17.—The New York Giants made another move in their reconstruction campaign yesterday when they signed Eddie Ainsmith, veteran catcher, who was a free agent.

Ainsmith played most of last season with the St. Louis Cardinals. Released last summer he was signed by Brooklyn as an emergency backstop but let out unconditionally at the end of the diamond year.

Next season will be Ainsmith's 15th in major league company. He broke in with Washington in 1910 and remained nine seasons with the Senators, going to Detroit in 1919 and to the St. Louis Nationals in 1921.

FOOTBALL RESULTS

Notre Dame returned to form on Saturday with a 34 to 7 victory over Butler, which was featured by a 65 yard return of a punt through the entire Butler team by Harry Stuhldreher for a touchdown.

Nebraska smashed the Ames line and won, 26 to 14.

The powerful Yale machine won over Princeton, 27 to 0.

Penn State ran rough shod over Pennsylvania University, 21 to 0.

Washington sprang a big surprise in its defeat of Missouri, 13 to 7.

Michigan triumphed over Wisconsin, 6 to 3, and 25,000 saw the game. Stanford had an easy time beating Idaho, 17 to 7.

In a last period rally Purdue defeated Northwestern, 6 to 3.

Lafayette won from Dayton U, 45 to 0.

Long runs, the kind that come when least expected, put Ohio State to rout and led to a Chicago victory, 17 to 3.

Illini, with its regulars on the bench, beat Mississippi, 27 to 0.

Pitt pulled down a surprise and downed its old rival, W. & J., 13 to 6.

Columbia defeated N. W. University, 21 to 0.

California downed Washington, 9 to 0.

Carleton lost its last game of the season to the University of North Dakota, 10 to 3.

St. Mary's beat Coughlin, 16 to 0.

Foreign Champions at Winter Golf Tournaments

New York, Nov. 16.—Interest in winter golf tournaments in the south will receive a great stimulus this year by the announcement received here that Arthur Havers, British open champion, and James Ockender, French open champion, had decided to come to America. Word to that effect came in the form of a cable received by Joe Kirkwood, former Australian star, yesterday.

The two stars will arrive in this country on Dec. 20 and will spend three months in the United States. They will head directly for the Pacific coast, playing in exhibition matches and in the various open tournaments in California. They will then work their way eastward, taking part in the various tournaments to be held in Texas, Mississippi and Alabama for the big events in the Alligator state.

It is now expected that the big Alabama, finally reaching Florida in match between Havers and Gene Sarazen, P. G. A. champion, originally scheduled to be held here, will be staged at Miami, Fla., toward the end of the season. Havers was ready to come to America early this month but the sudden death of his father forced the cancellation of his trip. It will be his first trip to America as well as Ockender's.

First Yale-Princeton Game, in 1873, Delayed Half Hour When Ball Burst

New York, Nov. 17.—Bursting of the one and only available ball held up for a half hour the historic football game between Yale and Princeton in November, 1873, the first of a classic gridiron series that reaches its 50th anniversary today in the battle between the Tiger and Bulldog at Yale bowl.

Accounts of the initial game a half century ago say that the ball burst a few minutes after play opened from the impact of a "forceful kick." No other was available and it required a half hour for repairs.

This interval, it is recorded, was utilized by Princeton to lay a new plan of attack, and when play was resumed the Tigers launched an offensive that resulted in victory by three goals to none.

WISCONSIN SKI STAR PLANS TEAM OF 25 JUMPERS

Arvid Bakke, an enthusiastic follower of the ski sport in Milwaukee, is making an effort to organize Wisconsin ski jumpers. Bakke intends to build a strong state team, comprising 25 jumpers, to take part in team competition this winter. The Norge Ski club, Chicago, one of the biggest ski organizations in the middle west, has promised to help make a success of this latest sport venture.

"PRINCE OF HEAVEN"

Topic of Evangelists Sermon Drew Large Audience to Gardner Hall

(Contributed)

Saturday night's program at Gardner hall, "The Prince of Heaven in Picture and Song," drew a full house and many words of appreciation were heard. While pictures on the life of Christ were thrown on the screen, many familiar gospel songs were sung.

The third Sunday evening of the lectures series is in the past. A large and very appreciative audience gathered to hear Evangelist Anderson deliver his striking lecture on "The Great Sin Detective." Mr. Anderson outlined the steps which every sinner must take to locate his sin and recognize his uncleanness of heart and get relief and cleansing. Matt 1:21—"Thou shalt call His name Jesus for He shall save His people from their sins." When God through His divine Law points out the sins and mistakes in our lives and says to us, "You are a sinner," the blessed Book points us to the Lamb of God who died to save His people from their sins. Cleansing can come through none other, but "Whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Mr. Anderson compared the kingdom of heaven to a kingdom on this earth, which must have these characteristics—A king, a dominion, subjects, and a law or rules of action. God's kingdom has all of these: God the King, ruling the vast universe, having as his subjects angels and men the inhabitants of heaven and earth, ruling all of these in love by one great Royal Law, the foundation principles of His government.

Tonight Mr. Anderson's subject will be, "Why I am a Seventh Day Adventist. A frank confession." Tuesday night will be, "The Christian Sabbath. A Search for Sunday Sacredness." Thrilling Bible hour talks will be given this week. They make the book of books very interesting. They inspire to noble living. They help us know God.

KITCHEN BOUQUET

CANADIAN AFTER HEAVYWEIGHT CROWN

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 19.—Jack Renault, the Canadian heavyweight, wants to fight Jack Dempsey for the world's championship, and if he has an even break in luck, he may get a shot at the title.

Renault is, at the present time, anything but the logical contender for Dempsey's crown, but he will make himself one because he is going about it the right way.

After knocking out Floyd Johnson, Renault said he was willing to fight Harry Wills, Tom Gibbons and Luis Firpo to prove his right to meet Dempsey.

Leo Flynn, Renault's manager, is one of the shrewdest managers in the business and he is also one of its most fluent orators. Flynn has done a lot of talking in advancing the claims of other heavyweights, but he seems to be sincere in his willingness to put Renault through the real test.

Renault now is not a great fighter. He may develop into one because he cannot help but improve himself by fighting top-notchers. The Canadian, in his present form, seems only to lack the aggressive spirit of a natural fighter. It is said of him that he is a "front runner," but he showed no signs of being timid in the Johnson fight.

When allowed to fight his own way or when he can force his opponent to fight his way, Renault is a good fighter. He can box and he can hit. His punching is accurate and well timed, even if it does lack the power of Dempsey, Gibbons and Wills.

Renault's worst fault lies in his tendency toward too much precaution. He prefers to play safe instead of charging in aggressively when he gets an opening. Had he been a great fighter he would have stopped Johnson many rounds before the fifteenth. He passed up many opportunities because he preferred to stay back and counter Johnson when he tore into him.

He cannot do that against Gibbons, Wills or Firpo. Only a rushing, charging fighter of the Dempsey type will beat the three leading contenders for the title.

Renault would not last five rounds if he tried to stand back and smack Gibbons, Wills or Firpo when they came into him. One good crack from any one of them would remove all chances for Renault to return a punch.

One thing is certain, and it will be a big help to him, Renault will not be over-matched. If Leo Flynn wants to match Renault with Gibbons, Wills and Firpo, it is a cinch that Flynn believes in his fighter. Flynn never will knock over a big money prospect for a little ready dough.

Floyd Johnson was one of the most promising young heavyweights to come up in four years, but he is clear out of the class now because he was over-matched in every one of his fights. He had nothing but courage, and a stout heart isn't the factor now that it was in the days of Bat Nelson.

MINNESOTA BEATS THE HAWKEYES

NEAR PERFECT TEAM PLAY OF GOPHERS SMOTHERED HAWKEYES

Minneapolis, Nov. 19.—Sweeping the heavier Iowa eleven off its feet with a perfectly timed and powerful attack, Minnesota furnished one of the upsets of the 1923 gridiron season by defeating the highly touted Hawkeyes, 20 to 7.

Record Crowd Sees Game

Before a crowd of 26,000, a record attendance for Northrop field, the Gophers not only upset the dope but stopped Iowa's string of five straight wins over the Maroon and Gold and now have only Michigan in the way of an undefeated season.

Minnesota's line, outweighed 12 pounds to a man, was a deciding factor in the victory. It was the work of the forwards that enabled the fleet Captain Earl Martineau and Malcolm Graham rip off long gains. And the brilliant play of this pair, coupled with Carl Lidberg's terrific line plunging and Ray Eklund's uncanny catching of forward passes, enabled the Gophers to take the upper hand early in the fray and hold it.

Minnesota's two marches down the field will live long in the memory of the fortunate ones who saw the battle between the traditional rivals. Minnesota in nine plays in the first period went from her 20 yard line to Iowa's 21 yard line, where a pass, Martineau to Eklund, brought a touchdown.

Soon afterward, early in the second period, Minnesota again marched down the field from her 18 yard line to within 25 yards of Iowa's goal. There a fake crisscross caught Iowa asleep and Martineau ripped through right tackle for a touchdown, going over the line standing up.

JAP JIU JITSUIST LOSES TO WRESTLER WHEN LEG IS BROKEN

Los Angeles, Nov. 17.—Walter Miller, wrestler, won by default last night from Taro Miyake, Japanese, in a combination bout of jiu jitsu and catch as catch can staged at the Los Angeles A. C.

After winning the first fall in a bout of jiu jitsu in 12 minutes and 54 seconds, Miyake was forced to withdraw at the end of the second fall as the result of a small bone broken in his left ankle while resisting one of Miller's toeholds.

The second fall, a catch as catch can bout, was won by Miller in 33 minutes and 58 seconds.

ZEV WINS BY A SCANT NOSE

RETRIEVES LOST HONORS FROM HIS RIVAL IN MEMORIAM

Churchill Downs, Louisville, Nov. 19.—With a stout heart pounding in rhythm with his flying hoofs, Zev son of The Finn, came from behind and regained his crown as champion 3 year old of the year by defeating In Memoriam in the match race here Saturday.

Zev won by a scant nose. In Memoriam, Carl Weidemann's western champion, had led Zev from a length to two lengths through the first long mile. In the stretch Zev began to close in. Earl Sande called upon the son of The Finn to give all he had. Zev leaped to the task. Slowly the daylight closed between the horses. They were head and head. Then Zev's nose, his neck, then Sande himself, showed in front. Little Mack Garner called on In Memoriam for a final effort. He shot through to the rail. Zev met final rush with a final rush. The plunging of the western horse was not enough. But so close was the finish that hundreds in the stands thought In Memoriam had won.

Celebrations for the supposed second victory of In Memoriam in two weeks were under way. Then the judges ordered Zev's number hoisted. They held that Harry F. Sinclair's colt had won by a nose. Garner rode back to the stand, smiling the smile of the victor and gently guided In Memoriam into the winner's circle. He was astounded when waved aside and the prancing, panting, blinkered Zev stepped into the charmed ring.

The time of the race was 2:06 3-5. This is three seconds slower than the track record for the distance of a mile and a quarter.

Giants Sign Ainsmith, Former Card Catcher

New York, Nov. 17.—The New York Giants made another move in their reconstruction campaign yesterday when they signed Eddie Ainsmith, veteran catcher, who was a free agent.

Ainsmith played most of last season with the St. Louis Cardinals. Released late last summer he was signed by Brooklyn as an emergency backstop but let out unconditionally at the end of the diamond year.

Next season will be Ainsmith's 15th in major league company. He broke in with Washington in 1910 and remained nine seasons with the Senators, going to Detroit in 1919 and to the St. Louis Nationals in 1921.

Foreign Champions at Winter Golf Tournaments

New York, Nov. 16.—Interest in winter golf tournaments in the south will receive a great stimulus this year by the announcement received here that Arthur Havers, British open champion, and James Ockender, French open champion, had decided to come to America. Word to that effect came in the form of a cable received by Joe Kirkwood, former Australian star, yesterday.

The two stars will arrive in this country on Dec. 26 and will spend three months in the United States. They will head directly for the Pacific coast, playing in exhibition matches and in the various open tournaments in California. They will then work their way eastward, taking part in the various tournaments to be held in Texas, Mississippi and Alabama for the big events in the Alligator state.

It is now expected that the big abama, finally reaching Florida in match between Havers and Gene Sarazen, P. G. A. champion, originally scheduled to be held here, will be staged at Miami, Fla., toward the end of the season. Havers was ready to come to America early this month but the sudden death of his father forced the cancellation of his trip. It will be his first trip to America as well as Ockender's.

First Yale-Princeton Game, in 1873, Delayed Half Hour When Ball Burst

New York, Nov. 17.—Bursting of the one and only available ball held up for a half hour the historic football game between Yale and Princeton in November, 1873, the first of a classic gridiron series that reaches its 50th anniversary today in the battle between the Tiger and Bulldog at Yale bowl.

Accounts of the initial game a half century ago say that the ball burst a few minutes after play opened from the impact of a "forceful kick." No other was available and it required a half hour for repairs.

This interval, it is recorded, was utilized by Princeton to lay a new plan of attack, and when play was resumed the Tigers launched an offensive that resulted in victory by three goals to none.

"PRINCE OF HEAVEN"

Topic of Evangelists Sermon Drew Large Audience to Gardner Hall

(Contributed)

Saturday night's program at Gardner hall, "The Prince of Heaven in Picture and Song," drew a full house and many words of appreciation were heard. While pictures on the life of Christ were thrown on the screen, many familiar gospel songs were sung.

The third Sunday evening of the lectures series is in the past. A large and very appreciative audience gathered to hear Evangelist Anderson deliver his striking lecture on "The Great Sin Detective."

Mr. Anderson outlined the steps which every sinner must take to locate his sin and recognize his uncleanness of heart and get relief and cleansing. Matt 1:21—"Thou shalt call His name Jesus for He shall save His people from their sins." Dining Rooms of Reputation

CERTAIN CHEFS become famous for their culinary skill. Catering to the public spreads their fame. There are thousands of housewives who regularly display equal skill, for they too know how KITCHEN BOUQUET improves most dishes, how it brings out the full flavor of meats, "snaps up" the stews, improves gravies by making them all flavored and bringing out the deep, rich brown color; how it adds the last touch of tastiness to soups, sauces, etc., etc.

Add a tablespoonful just before taking off stove.

Your grocer sells lots of KITCHEN BOUQUET.
